Dear Nivetha Ramanan,

This is with reference to your email 11 October 2026 regarding the use of the Daily Price Report data for your student research project under "ModelX 2.0". Please be informed that the aforementioned data published on the CBSL website (https://www.cbsl.gov.lk/en/statistics/economic-indicators/price-report) is publicly available data and does not require specific approval or permission for use.
However, the Central Bank of Sri Lanka bears no responsibility for, nor does it endorse, the content, findings, or interpretations of any project or report derived from data sourced from these reports. When citing the data in your project, you may attribute the source as "Statistics Department, Central Bank of Sri Lanka".

We wish you all the best with your research project and future endeavors.

Yours sincerely,

Director
Statistics Department
Central Bank of Sri Lanka
